Unfinished Business
a. COVID-19 Related Actions
   - No changes at this time. With the changes in federal, state, and county-level statistics, the library will be determining different criteria and thresholds for responsive actions.
b. Repairs and Updates to the Blum House
   - Island countertop is installed and the rest of the counters are on order. Temporary repair work to the porch is finished and rest will be completed next year. A side door has also been replaced.
c. Board Vacancy
   - No applications have been received as of yet.
d. Background Checks for Volunteers
   - Libraries that do these checks say they highly recommended them. There was discussion about and general consensus of checking regular programming volunteers (i.e., those who volunteer for at least one event per month). “One-off” volunteers for specific events or tasks will not likely be checked at this time.

e. Annual Evaluation of the Executive Director
   - Awaiting the meeting of the Personnel Committee.

f. Policy- Bereavement Leave (2nd Draft)

- Non-resident kids under 18 under a threshold of household income level have to be given a card for free under the Cards for Kids Act. The Board may choose, based on a new state law, to expand this option for all non-resident children under the age of 18.

- Non-resident veterans may also be eligible for a free non-resident card if they meet certain disability criteria.

- The optional e-resources for non-resident cards will not be offered due to inability to implement it technologically.

d. Draft FY2023 Budget

- Waltermire spoke about a few line items where updates may be made to the draft budget for cost savings, and other places where quality of services increases are needed. She has also noted intention to increase promotion of rental facilities for the next year to support more revenue. There was also some discussion about potentially selling land owned by the Library not useful for any current means.

- The van is approaching the end of its useable lifespan. The car is in ok shape for now. Options for either selling or replacing the vehicles were discussed.

- A large fundraising event was thrown out as an opportunity to bring in some operational revenue. The fundraising committee may discuss ideas in the future.

e. Review of Serving Our Public 4.0 Chapter 7
