DRAFT VOLUNTEER AND COMMUNITY SERVICE POLICY

Note: This is a new policy and does not replace or supersede any other policy.

2.13 Volunteers and Community Service

Volunteers and community service workers are an important extension of the Library's operations. Volunteers perform a wide variety of tasks that are important to the Library. The following is designed to promote a maximum degree of excellence.

2.13.1 Definitions

"Volunteer" is defined as one who performs a service of their own free will; who contributes time, energy, and/or talents directly to or on behalf of the Library; and who is not paid by the Library for their efforts.

"Community service" is defined as work that is done without pay to help people in a community or to assist organizations benefiting the whole community, and the work is required by an organization or governmental entity.

"Community service worker" is an individual required to complete community service. Examples include students who are required to complete a set amount of community service for inclusion in extracurricular activities and individuals who are ordered by a court to complete community service as part of their sentence.

2.13.2 Guidelines for Volunteers and Community Service

- Potential volunteers and community service workers are encouraged to reach out to the Library to express their interest in volunteering.
- Volunteers and community service workers are responsible for providing the Library with a copy of their paperwork for tracking hours completed.
- All personal information requested, recorded, and/or retained by the Library is for internal use only; however, information may be eligible for disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.
- Volunteers under the age of 18 years of age are required to have permission from their parent/guardian to serve as volunteers.
- Any volunteer who is volunteering on a basis of at least once per month must successfully pass a background check prior to the start of their service.
- Volunteers and community service workers will coordinate tasks and work schedules with Library staff. The Library cannot guarantee the availability of tasks, as work is based on Library needs.
