- The United States Semiquincentennial Commission Act of 2016 (Public Law 114-685, 114th Congress) was adopted on July 22, 2016 by the U.S. Congress.
- From America250.org:
  - “The U.S. Semiquincentennial Commission was established by Congress in 2016 to plan and orchestrate the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence of the United States. The nonpartisan Commission...is working with America250.org, Inc. to engage Americans across the country in designing the largest anniversary observance in our nation’s history.”
  - “The America250.org, Inc. (‘A250’) is the nonprofit supporting organization to the U.S. Semiquincentennial Commission.”
  - “America250 is the national nonpartisan organization charged by Congress to engage every American in celebrating and commemorating the 250th anniversary of our country. This multi-year effort, from now through July 4, 2026, is an opportunity to pause and reflect on our nation’s past, honor the contributions of all Americans, and look ahead toward the future we want to create for the next generation and beyond.”
